Tom Gillaspie, the voice of the Greyhounds, is silent. After many, many years of announcing football and basketball games for the Healdsburg High school teams, Tom passed away on June 9, 1988, while attending a reunion in Lincoln, Nebraska.

Tom served as a teacher, counsellor, and coach for the Healdsburg High School District from September 13, 1971, to February 27, 1981, when he retired. He remained active in community events announcing also for Pop Warner games, the Future Farmer's Fair Parade, and many special programs.

Tom was an ardent supporter of two schools known as "Big Red": the University of Nebraska of which he was an alumni, and Healdsburg High.

Yes, Tom's voice is silent, but it still echoes in the hearts of those who knew and loved him and of those who he served.
